Books, Bookish People and Things

"The Unwritten Literature of Hawaii" is the title of a reprint by Dr. Nathaniel H. Emerson of Honolulu—the introduction to an unpublished manuscript "Unwritten Literature of Hawaii." Presented at the meeting of the American Anthropological Association, San Francisco, August, 1905. It treats of the origin and nature of the literature and like all of Dr. Emerson's writings, is a valuable contribution.

"The most telling record of a people's intimate life is the record which it unconsciously makes in its songs," he says. "This record which the Hawaiian people have left of themselves is full and specific. When, therefore, we ask what emotions stirred the heart of the old time Hawaiian as he approached the great themes of life and death, of ambition and jealousy, of sexual love, of conjugal love, and parental love; what his attitude towards nature and the dread forces of earthquake and storm, and the mysteries of spirit and the hereafter—we shall find our answer in the songs and prayers and recitations of the hula."

"A Sentiment in Verse for Every Day in the Year." This neat little book compiled by Walter L. Sheldon, is issued in half cloth at 50c by the Ethical Society, 1415 Locust St., Philadelphia. The selections have been carefully made by a man of taste and feeling, short, appropriate, and printed in clear type on good paper. There is an index of authors at the end of the book with name of poem from which the quotation is made. A most valuable gift-book for the holidays or a birthday. S. Burns Weston, 1415 Locust St., Philadelphia.

At the age of nearly eighty this distinguished man has passed away. He was an able representative of French Liberal Protestantism, for with great ability he combined a most pleasing personality. A short sketch of his life and work may be found in the "Christian Register" of November 22.

Mr. Creelman in this month's "Pearson's" writes on Kaiser William and "Fighting Bob." Both papers are exceedingly interesting.

"The Graf" comes in new dress for November. John Milton Scott, Westwood, Mass., a year.

NEBOGATOFF GETS DEATH SENTENCE

St. Petersburg, Dec. 25.—The naval court-martial ordered to try Admiral Nebogatoff and seventy-eight of his officers for surrendering their division of Russian ships to the Japanese, has sentenced Nebogatoff, Commander Lyshko, Admiral Gregoroff and Lieutenant Smirnov to death. The court petitioned the Emperor to commute these sentences to ten years' imprisonment.

SARGENT TELLS OF JAPANESE PROGRESS IN HAWAII

The Examiner of December 18 publishes the following:

Frank Sargent, United States Commissioner General of Immigration, who arrived on the liner Nippon Maru yesterday, gives an interesting account of the conditions in the Hawaiian Islands and the inroads made by the Japanese in all small business enterprises, until they have driven the major portion of the Americans and native Hawaiians from the field.

Sargent was sent to Honolulu to investigate the importation of 1339 Portuguese. "These people were brought out by the Territorial Board of Immigration," said Sargent. "The planters are disgusted with the Japanese, who after working but a short time will either engage in business or join the exodus to the mainland of the United States, no less than 12,000 having been sent here from Hawaii during the last year."

"There is hardly a small business carried on in which the Japanese does not dominate, at least in numbers, and the people resent the competition which it is impossible for them to combat successfully."

"To draw examples from two widely diversified occupations, an American contractor showed me rows of stores and buildings erected by Japanese contractors on which he and other Americans were underbid, because their labor cost them more than that of their Japanese rivals."

"Everyone rides a great deal in Honolulu and the cabs were formerly driven by natives and Americans; now it is unusual to see other than a Japanese cabby."

CHRISTMAS BOX FOR IRON WORKERS

The employees of the Honolulu Iron Works were made happy Monday. T. Clive Davies at noon mounted to the top of a stepladder and gave the customary Christmas greeting to the employees. It was the custom of his father, Theo. H. Davies, to come to the works on Christmas eve and extend the greeting of the year to each employee. The speaker remarked that he was not personally acquainted with all the employees but hoped to become so in the near future. Mr. Davies said that as Mr. Swanzy, president of the Works, was absent on one of the other islands it fell to him to make the Christmas speech. At one time each casting made by the Honolulu Iron Works had a mortgage on it from which it had to be released before delivery could be made. Times have changed since then, and the year has been a good one financially for the establishment.

Mr. Davies instructed each employee to go to the pay window after work and receive a slight remembrance of their faithfulness during the year. Three cheers were given for Mr. Davies and Mr. Wedehouse, who accompanied him. Mr. Roe was called on to respond. He declined to go to the top of the ladder, as he had already reached the top and was coming down. He thanked Mr. Davies in behalf of the employees of the company for the practical way they had been remembered and the appreciation shown in the past year in making the Christmas box a successful one.

Each envelope passed out through the pay window contained three days' pay, with a wish for a merry Christmas.
